Subject: Invitation for Write-ups for the 2nd Edition of the J&K Finance and Accounts Society Journal.

Esteemed Members,

Building on the promising launch of the inaugural edition of the J&K Finance and Accounts Society Journal, which featured insightful articles on digitization, Auditing, Financial IT reforms, infrastructure investments, taxation, and financial management, we are delighted to announce the launch of its 2nd Edition. The 2nd Edition of journal aims to foster a culture of knowledge sharing, innovation, and professional growth among members of the J&K Finance & Accounts Society. The contributions will not only strengthen this initiative but also help in building a repository of valuable insights for the cadre and society. This edition will be unveiled at a special event, and contributors will receive special mention in the journal for their efforts.

We warmly invite all members to contribute original and insightful write-ups that reflect your expertise, experiences, innovative ideas, policy recommendations, case studies, capacity-building initiatives, or best practices in Finance & Accounts. The scope is deliberately broad, encouraging exploration beyond these areas.

Guidelines for Submissions:

1. Submissions must be original and unpublished.
2. Write-ups should be concise and well-structured, with a word count between 500 and 1500 words.
3. Include proper references and citations, adhering to a recognized citation style.
4. Submit in M.S Word format, using Tahoma font, size 12, with 1.5 line spacing.
5. Attach a passport-sized photograph (JPEG format) with your submission.
6. Provide your name, JKAS Batch, designation, Department and Email Id.
7. Members are encouraged to include visual elements such as data, charts, graphs, or infographics to support their write-ups.

All submissions must be free of plagiarism and adhere to ethical writing standards. Write-ups will undergo a thorough review process to ensure originality, quality and relevance. Submissions found to contain plagiarized content will be immediately disqualified. Selected write-ups will be featured in the 2nd Edition of the journal with proper attribution.

All members interested in contributing to the 2nd Edition journal are requested to submit their write-ups via email to societyjakfa@gmail.com. The deadline for submission is 15-03-2025.

We eagerly look forward to your thoughtful contributions, which will undoubtedly make this Edition of Journal a resounding success.

Sonam Singh, JKAS
Cultural-cum-Literary Secretary
